To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BUTTER MARKET.—But little was done in butter to-day on account of the Elections.—Prices for choice butter ranged from 38 to 40 cents and 514 tubs were shipped.

FESTIVAL.—The young ladies of St. Luke's Church will hold a Fair and Festival at the residence of H. B. Sowles, Esq., on the evening of the 4th instant, as elsewhere announced. With their usual tact and talent in such matters, we doubt not that the management will be such as to secure to all attending, very pleasant enjoyment, and to the finance committee a handsome sum to augment the fund for the building of a rectory. Gather your eulogistic scrip, young men, and go like a lamb to the festival.

Election in St. Albans.

The Election passed off comparatively quiet in St. Albans. The Town authorities took a very wise precaution in having two different points provided in our very pleasant and agreeable Town Hall for the reception of ballots for State and County officers, and Town Representative. At three o'clock, as the law provides, the boxes for Town Representative were turned, and result was as follows:

Whole number of votes	841
Necessary for a choice	421
George G. Hunt had	551
B. F. Rugg	159
H. M. Stevens	30
A. S. Hyde	91
Scattering	10
Majority for Mr. Hunt	261

The announcement was received with prolonged cheering, and Mr. Hunt, being called for, stepped on to the steps of the entrance leading to the Congregational Church, and delivered himself of a very happy speech. He said he was known to be a Republican from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot, yet he confessed himself very grateful for the support he received from men of all parties; this support was given him, he was well aware, not on political, but on local grounds. He has always been a friend of the workingmen, and he then and there pledged himself that he would never be unmindful of their interest. He would serve the town as his best ability would permit, and for the interests of all. His brief speech was received with loud cheering, when the crowd dispersed.

STABBING AFFRAY.—Last night while Engine Co. No. 2 were inserting their suction hose into the well near John Dalley's house upon Foundry Street, for the purpose of extinguishing the fire ignited amongst the ruins of the late Gas Manufacturing establishment, Mr. Dalley rushed from his house and stabbed a fireman by the name of John C. Moss. The only cause assigned for this outrage was the appropriation of the water. Mr. Moss immediately proceeded home, where he received the attention of Dr. Branch who found his wounds not dangerous; and we are happy to state he is doing finely. If it had not been for the prompt appearance of the police upon the scene of action, vengeance of the fiercest nature would, we fear, follow to the exasperation of the firemen and crowd assembled, overtaken the perpetrator of this rash act.

FIRE.—Our town was last night visited by two more fires, which, although, not of a very destructive character are yet nevertheless warnings to our citizens. The first alarm was given about 10 o'clock, and the fire was found to be in the south end of the Railroad yard in a pile of cedar posts, which had taken from a locomotive, but was easily put out with water taken from the tender. Our Fire Engines were both out. The second alarm was given about 3 o'clock this morning, and the remains of the old gas house were found to be on fire; probably the work of an incendiary. Both Fire Engines were at the scene of the fire immediately. No. 2 got the first water on the fire, which was soon subdued.

CATTLE FOR MARKET.—The Woodstock Standard says: There seems to be a large number of cattle going South to market these days, three large droves having passed through town within a week. The last, a fine drove, which passed Tuesday morning, is owned by Daniel Landon, of Stowe. When he left home he had 300 head, but before reaching this place he sold 60 of the number. He takes his cattle to Connecticut for a market, that is, if they are not all disposed of before he gets there.

THE OAKES AMES.—The Free Press says that the new steamer, Oakes Ames, commenced her regular business trips, with freight and baggage cars on board, and ample accommodations for passengers, this morning. She runs in connection with the through train from Rutland to Ogdensburg and Montreal, which leaves here at 2:30 a. m., and returning, leaves Plattsburgh in the morning, and arrives here at 2:30 p. m., in time to connect with the 2:45 train south over the Rutland road. The steamer will touch, till further notice, at Port Kent and Port Jackson, both going and coming, thus affording a convenient ferry between this side of the Lake and those two points.

THE CASE OF THE POTTERS.—A hearing was held on Friday before Chief Justice Pierpont, in the case of Charles Potter and wife, held to bail in $5,000 each for having burglarized tools in their possession. Mr. Henry Ballard, counsel for respondents made application for reduction of bail which States Attorney English opposed on the part of the State. The Judge denied the application, remarking that inasmuch as by the laws of the State the crime for which the prisoners are held for trial is punished by the penalty of a fine not to exceed $10,000 and imprisonment in the State prison not exceeding twenty years, while for committing burglary the highest penalty is a fine of only $1,000 or imprisonment for fifteen years, he considered that the bail of $5,000, as now fixed was not excessive. —Times.

INFELICIA.—Poems by Adah Isaacs Menken—will be published simultaneously in London, Paris, and New York. The poems are somewhat of a religious cast and will most probably surprise readers who have made up their minds for compositions of quite another character. The book itself, dedicated to Charles Dickens, is one of the daintiest little volumes which have issued from the press for many years, and the quaint illustrations at the commencement of each poem will excite no small attention. —London paper.

"The blushing beauties of a modest maid" are doubly enhanced by the "luxuriant wealth" of hair which as surely follows the use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" as that light follows darkness. —St. Louis Times.

If every family in this town knew the value of Rene's Magic Oil, and would keep a bottle of it on hand to use in case of accident, we should be a happier if not a handsomer people. Try this Oil.

Taking Medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of Iron in the Blood, without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) supplies this deficiency and builds up an iron constitution.

The excellent American Organ, manufactured by S. D. & H. W. Smith Boston, used at the late convention, deserves an especial notice, a large double banked instrument of 14 stops, whose heavy sub-bass notes were distinctly heard above the whole chorus of 350 voices, while in accompanying the recitatives in the oratorios, the effect of the soft stops and tremolo were very striking. We notice that the use of these beautiful instruments is beginning to be appreciated by societies in the larger cities. —Burlington Free Press.

CANCER, SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER Complaint, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, &c., cured. A Book of 100 pages, sent free to invalids. Address R. GREENE, M. D., 10 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.

It is a glorious occupation, vivifying and self-sustaining in its nature, to struggle with ignorance, and discover to the inquiring minds of the masses the clear cerulean blue of heavenly truth.

It is to labor, and to labor only, that man owes everything possessed of unchangeable value. Labor is the talisman that has raised him from the condition of the savage; that has changed the desert and the forest into cultivated fields; that has covered the earth with cities and the ocean with ships; that has given us plenty, comfort, and elegance, instead of want, misery, and barbarism.
